The space presently used for our library is going to be repurposed to a multi-media room. Certain books will be kept in the room as reference materials. These books will be in the glass-doored cabinets. The remaining books are available immediately to any who may wish to have them. Please browse through the books and freely acquire those you wish to read and keep, or pass along to others. If you wish to come in during the week, check with Betty as to the days and hours she will be at the Chapel mid-week to let you in. The printer and monitor are also available to anyone who wishes to take them home and make use of them. For any questions please speak to Duncan, Betty or Brian.
