The space presently used for our library is going to be repurposed to a multi-media room. Select books will be kept in the room as reference materials in the glass-doored cabinets. The remaining books are available immediately to any who may wish to have them. Please browse through the books and freely acquire those you wish to read and keep, or pass along to others. If you wish to come in during the week, check with Betty as to the days and hours she will be at the Chapel mid-week to let you in. The printer and monitor are also available to anyone who wishes to take them home and make use of them. For any questions please speak to Duncan, Betty or Brian.

Please remember that WBC is committing to a 2-year sponsorship for a child with International China Concern.

The cost is $40 per month. Please see Sarah Martin if you feel led to give. Due to the virus threats, many children are now at high risk and ICC can use all our prayers and support for these vulnerable children. For more information on their situation, please go to their website: <https://chinaconcern.org/>
